Announcements

Andrew Carnegie Fellows Program

The Carnegie Corporation of New York has issued a request for nominations for the highly prestigious Andrew Carnegie Fellows Program, which provides awards of $200,000 for a one- or two-year period. The Corporation expects fellows “will explore the ways political polarization in the United States manifests itself in society and provide possible means to alleviate the problems.” The UO may nominate one junior scholar and one senior scholar (tenured faculty) for this award. Nominees must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Interested candidates should submit a preproposal for internal review by September 10, 2024 to be considered for nomination. The external deadline for the program is November 8, 2024. Questions about this program should be directed to Foundation Relations.

Limited/Internally Coordinated Submissions

National Science Foundation

Major Research Instrumentation \(MRI\)

This is a limited submission opportunity. The UO is allowed to submit two proposals in Track 1, one proposal in Track 2, and one in Track 3. To be considered, please submit a preproposal by the internal deadline date by 5:00 p.m. Because instrumentation is of institutional interest, applicants are encouraged to connect with Research Development Services before submission to determine the proposal's alignment with institutional priorities.
